ABOUT THE CUSTOMER

A global commercial real estate services company, founded in the United States with offices in 50+ countries. The firms' services include investment management, asset management, sales and leasing, property management, project management, and development.

TRIGGER POINT

To overcome unprecedented challenges in the commercial real estate industry, successful property managers will adapt quickly, do more with less, and provide essential services while enhancing the customer experience. Our global real estate management customer's challenge was to aggregate information from multiple systems to automate and optimize every truck roll to a customer site.

With Loginext's configurable, fully automated and highly integratable logistics platform; our global real estate partner is able to automatically consolidate service and product truck rolls to customers. They now have real time visibility of product orders and services in their fully automated logistics management system.
