

Did You Know?

Shifting customer loyalty is one of the major areas of disruption for CEP businesses as more than 35% customers consider switching brands after a single instance of bad experience.

The transportation sector contributes to almost 12% of CO2 emissions with the CEP industry being a major part of it.

What are the major reasons that can lead to loss of customers in CEP business?

Increasing Needs of Customers

Shorter Delivery Time Expectations

Customers Can't Get Their Current Order Status
